trees situated in lands which are now or may hereafter be occupied for cultivation or for other purposes, nor to compensation on account of any date trees or topes which the Government may, at any time, consider necessary to reserve for other purposes or for the supply of toddy to other Districts. The manufacture of jaggory will be carried on only in such localities and under such conditions as the Deputy Commissioner may fix from time to time.

VIII (b). The lessee shall keep true and correct accounts for each Taluk, showing (1) the names and situation of the date topes from which toddy is drawn, (2) the number of trees tapped, (3) the quantity of toddy drawn daily, (4) the quantity of toddy sold daily, and (5) the names of the shops to which toddy is supplied. These accounts shall be open to inspection by the Amildar or any other officer appointed by the Deputy Commissioner for this purpose, and a copy thereof shall be furnished by the lessee to the Deputy Commissioner or Amildar on application.

IX. The lessee will have no claims to compensation or remission on account of any arrangements which may be made by Government in regard to beer or other descriptions of liquor or spirit than toddy. The Dewan reserves to himself the power to terminate the lease as regards any parts of the District on public grounds, awarding a reasonable compensation for the same.

X. No toddy shall be knowingly sold or given to any European soldier, sailor, European or Eurasian woman or child, or to a sepoy or policeman when on duty, and any breach of this rule shall render the lessee or the vendor severally or jointly liable to the payment of a penalty of Rs. 50 for the first offence, and one-hundred rupees for every subsequent offence, as well as for the cancelment of the vendor's license.

XI. The lessee shall be responsible that his servants or agents are prevented from extracting toddy from young immature date trees the trunks of which are less than one yard in height from the ground to the springing of the branches, nor shall any leaves be cut and used by them except such as may have to be removed for the purpose of drawing toddy; and any breach of these rules shall render the lessee liable to the payment of a penalty of Rs. 50 for the first offence, and Rs. 100 for every subsequent offence.

XII. The rates at which toddy shall be sold to the public shall be as follows:—

	MAXIMUM.			MINIMUM.
	Prices per Seer.

6. Carts used for the transport of toddy are not exempted from payment of the prescribed mohatarfa cart tax.

7. Information in regard to the past revenue and any other matters can be had on application at the Deputy Commissioner's office.

Tenders are hereby invited for the exclusive privilege of selling toddy during a period of 3 years from 1st April 1887 to 31st March 1890 in the undermentioned Taluks of the Chitaldroog District, namely :—

1. Chitaldroog
2. Challakere
3. Hiriyur
4. Holalkere including the Hosdurga Deputy Amildar's charge
5. Davangere
6. Jagalur
7. Molakalmuru

2. Each tender must specify the annual amount offered and must be accompanied by a deposit of Rs. 1,000 in cash or Government securities and enclosed in a cover, superscribed with the words "Tender for the exclusive privilege of selling toddy in the Chitaldroog District."

3. The tenders must be delivered at the office of the Deputy Commissioner, Chitaldroog District, on or before noon on the 26th February 1887, when they will be opened in the presence of the applicants. The applicant, whose tender may be selected by the Deputy Commissioner for recommendation to the Dewan, will be required to deposit at once, in cash or in Government securities duly endorsed in favor of the Dewan of Mysore, a further sum equal to one-twelfth (or one month's instalment) of the amount of the annual rent tendered, failing which the deposit made with the tender will be forfeited.

4. When the decision of the Dewan is announced, the deposits made by applicants whose tenders have been rejected will be thereupon returned to them on their application. The Dewan reserves to himself the power of rejecting the highest or any tender without assigning any reason.

5. The party whose tender may be accepted shall, within 8 days after the Dewan's decision has been communicated to him, deposit with the Deputy Commissioner, a sum in cash or Government securities duly endorsed in favor of the Dewan of Mysore, which, with the sums previously deposited under para 3, shall be equal to one-fourth of the amount of the annual rent tendered and shall execute an agreement in the usual form on proper stamp, binding himself to conform to the conditions hereinafter set forth ; and if he fails or refuses to sign the agreement, or to make the deposit required, the deposits already made will be forfeited to Government, and the lease otherwise disposed of.

Conditions.

I. The annual contract amount shall be paid by equal monthly instalments together with the prescribed local cess of one anna on every rupee computed on such contract amount, into the District Treasury, on or before the 15th of the month following that for which the payment is due; and interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum shall be paid on all arrears left outstanding on that date. Such arrears shall, if they remain unpaid after the lapse of the month in which they are payable, be recoverable by attachment and sale of the property of the lessee in the manner prescribed by existing rules for the recovery of arrears of land revenue, and it shall be at the discretion of the Deputy Commissioner with the sanction of the Dewan to declare the lease cancelled, and to resell or retain it under Government management and to recover all outstanding arrears with interest and any losses which may result from such resale or other disposal of the contract, by confiscation of the security deposited, and, if necessary, by attachment and sale of the property of the defaulter, under the rules in force for the recovery of arrears of land revenue.

II. The usual licenses to retail vendors will be issued in the prescribed form by the Deputy Commissioner, and no alteration shall be made by the lessee in the locality or number of the retail shops now opened for sale of toddy, without the express sanction of the Deputy Commissioner. The Deputy Commissioner is competent to order any shops to be closed on grounds of public expediency, and the lessee shall not claim any compensation therefor.

III. Grain, goods, ornaments, wearing apparel or other property should not be received in barter or pawn for toddy.

IV. The lessee shall conform to any additional rules which may be prescribed from time to time by the Dewan.

V. No interference shall be made by the lessee with the rights, as already ascertained and defined, of the holders of jodi, sarvamanyam and kayamgutta villages who are authorized by the sanad, &c., to exercise such rights within the limits of their villages. Disputes regarding such rights and the amount of compensation due to inamdars as toddy revenue will be decided by the Deputy Commissioner and the lessee shall be bound by such decision, which shall be subject however to the confirmation or otherwise, on appeal, of the Dewan. The amount if any awarded by such decision of the Deputy Commissioner or of the Dewan on appeal shall be recoverable from the contractors in accordance with the rules for the time being in force for the recovery of arrears of land revenue.

VI. No toddy shops shall be opened before 6 A. M., and all shops shall be closed at 9 P. M., except when otherwise authorized by the Deputy Commissioner on exceptional occasions.

VII. All shops for the sale of toddy on or adjacent to the line of march shall be closed while a Regiment or Detachment of European soldiers is passing by, or during its temporary halt in the vicinity, and no compensation shall be claimable for loss alleged to have occurred or to have been occasioned thereby, and it shall be lawful for such troops to have their own abkari contractor.

VIII (a). The lessee will be allowed the use of the date trees growing on Government waste land for the extraction of toddy either for sale within the limits of his farm, or for manufacture into jaggory, but he will have no claims to date trees situated in lands which are now or may hereafter be occupied for cultivation or for other purposes, nor to compensation on account of any date trees or topes which the Government may, at any time, consider necessary to reserve for other purposes, or for the supply of toddy to other Districts. The manufacture of jaggory will be carried on only in such localities and under such conditions as the Deputy Commissioner may fix from time to time.

VIII (b). The lessee shall keep true and correct accounts for each taluk, showing (1) the names and situation of the date topes from which toddy is drawn, (2) the number of trees tapped, (3) the quantity of toddy drawn daily,

(4) the quantity of toddy sold daily, and (5) the names of the shops to which toddy is supplied. These accounts shall be open to inspection by the Amildar or any other officer appointed by the Deputy Commissioner for this purpose, and a copy thereof shall be furnished by the lessee to the Deputy Commissioner or Amildar on application.

IX. The lessee will have no claims to compensation or remission on account of any arrangements which may be made by Government in regard to beer or other descriptions of liquor or spirit than toddy. The Dewan reserves to himself the power to terminate the lease as regards any parts of the District on public grounds, awarding a reasonable compensation for the same.

X. No toddy shall be knowingly sold or given to any European soldier, sailor, European or Eurasian woman or child, or to a sepoy or policeman when on duty, and any breach of this rule shall render the lessee or the vendor severally or jointly liable to the payment of a penalty of Rs. 50 for the first offence, and one hundred rupees for every subsequent offence, as well as for the cancelment of the vendor's license.

XI. The lessee shall be responsible that his servants or agents are prevented from extracting toddy from young immature date trees the trunks of which are less than one yard in height from the ground to the springing of the branches, nor shall any leaves be cut and used by them except such as may have to be removed for the purpose of drawing toddy; and any breach of these rules shall render the lessee liable to the payment of a penalty of Rs. 50 for the first offence, and Rs. 100 for every subsequent offence.

The toddy farm or the exclusive privilege of selling toddy in the District of Shimoga for three years, viz. from 1st April 1887 to 31st March 1890, will be sold by public auction by the Deputy Commissioner of Shimoga at his Office at 12 o'clock noon on the 3rd March 1887, separately for each taluk or groups of taluks subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth. The toddy farm will not in the above term of 3 years include the right of selling the bagani toddy in the Mahad taluks which will be farmed separately for each village or groups of villages. The District of Shimoga comprises the undermentioned taluks:—

1. Shimoga including Kumsi Deputy Amildar's charge.
2. Tirthahalli.
3. Chaunagiri.
4. Sagar.
5. Nagar.
6. Sorab.
7. Honnali.
8. Shikarpur.

2. The farm in each case will be put up to auction at an upset annual rent which will be notified at the time, and will be knocked down to the highest bidder, subject to confirmation by the Dewan, who reserves to himself the power of rejecting the highest or any bid without assigning any reason.

3. Parties intending to bid must attend either in person or by duly accredited agents, and no person will be permitted to bid until he has deposited a sum equal to 5 per cent of the upset annual rent fixed. The deposits of all unsuccessful bidders will be returned to them at the close of the sale.

4. The highest bidder whose bid is recommended for confirmation by the Dewan will be required to deposit at once a sum equal to one-twelfth of the annual rent engaged for, inclusive of the deposit already made by him. On the decision of the Dewan being announced, he will be required, within eight days of such announcement, to deposit with the Deputy Commissioner, inclusive of the previous deposits a total sum equal to one-fourth of the annual rent engaged for, either in cash or in Government securities duly endorsed in favor of the Dewan of Mysore, as security for the due fulfilment of the contract. Or he may furnish one-half of the security above required in cash or in Government securities duly endorsed as above, and the remaining half in immovable property of value equal to double the amount, free of all claims and encumbrances. He shall further execute an agreement in the usual form on proper stamp, binding himself to conform to the conditions herein set forth.

5. If he fails to furnish the deposits required in the preceding para, or refuses to execute the agreement required, any deposits already made will be forfeited to Government, and the farm resold or otherwise disposed of, any losses resulting from such resale or other disposal of the farm being recovered from him by attachment and sale of his property under the rules in force for the recovery of arrears of land revenue.

Conditions.

I. The annual contract amount shall be paid by equal monthly instalments, together with the prescribed local cess of one anna on every rupee, computed on such contract amount, into the District Treasury, on or before the 15th of the month following that for which the payment is due; and interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum shall be paid on all arrears left outstanding on that date. Such arrears shall, if they remain unpaid after the lapse of the month in which they are payable, be recoverable by attachment and sale of the property of the lessee in the manner prescribed by existing rules for the recovery of arrears of land revenue, and it shall be at the discretion of the Deputy Commissioner with the Dewan's sanction to declare the lease cancelled, and to resell or retain it under Government management and to recover all outstanding arrears with interest, and any losses which may result from such resale or other disposal of the contract, by confiscation of the security deposited, and, if necessary, by attachment and sale of the property of the defaulter, under the rules in force for the recovery of arrears of land revenue.

II. The usual licenses to retail vendors will be issued by the Deputy Commissioner, and no alteration shall be made by the lessee in the locality or number of the retail shops now opened for sale of toddy, without the express sanction of the Deputy Commissioner. Camp No. 1461.—The attention of all public servants is drawn to the rules relating to Government servants holding land, dated 29th May 1863, as modified by Notifications No. 123, dated 6th July 1870, and No. 260, dated 10th November 1870. Any attempt to evade the operation of the said rules will render the party guilty thereof, liable to removal from the public service or to such other departmental punishment as the Government may deem fit.

2. In the case of officers usually appointed by Government, the sanction of the Government should be obtained before acquiring, either directly or indirectly, whether in their own names or in those of others in trust for them, any landed property or an interest in landed property, either by right of private purchase, bargain, mortgage, transfer or by any other means whatsoever. In the case of such officers coming into possession of land or of an interest in land by inheritance or by division of family property, the Deputy Commissioner will report the fact to the Dewan after registering the tenure under para 3 of the Notification dated 29th May 1863.

The 10th December 1886.

No. 206.—It is hereby notified for public information that the undermentioned jodi villages, which have been duly attached in satisfaction of the arrears of revenue due to Government (as shown in the subjoined statement) by the said jodidars, will be sold by public auction at the place and on the date mentioned in the annexed statement. The sale will commence at 11 A. M. on the date specified, and the village will be knocked down to the highest bidder without reserve.

2. Provided that when a village is divided into separate recognized vrittis, the Deputy Commissioner may, at his option, instead of selling the village as a whole, sell each vritti separately.

3. The purchaser will be required to deposit 25 per cent of the purchase money at the time of sale, and where the remainder of the purchase money may not be paid within fifteen days from the day of sale, the money so deposited shall be liable to forfeiture.

4. When such deposit shall not be made, nor the remaining purchase money paid up, the lands shall be resold at the expense and risk of the first purchaser.

5. Persons bidding at the sale may be required to state whether they bid on their own account or as agents, and in the latter case to deposit a written authority signed by their principals, otherwise their bids may be rejected.

6. The sale shall be stayed, if the defaulter or any other person acting on his behalf or claiming an interest in the land, tenders the full amount of the arrears of revenue with the interest and other charges, provided such tender be made before sunset on the day previous to that appointed for the sale.

7. The sale of the property will not become absolute until the sale has been confirmed by the Dewan.

8. Purchasers having completed the payment of the purchase money will, as soon as the sale has been confirmed by the Dewan, be placed in immediate possession and the village will be registered in the name of the purchaser, and a certificate of sale signed and sealed by the Deputy Commissioner will be granted to him. It is to be distinctly understood that the Government are not responsible for errors of description and in estimated extent.

9. Provided parties deeming themselves aggrieved by the sale shall be at liberty to appeal to the Dewan within 30 days from the day of sale, and the purchase shall be conditional on the final order in such appeal.

The 18th December 1886.

No. 214.—It is hereby notified for public information that the undermentioned jodi village, which has been duly attached in satisfaction of the arrears of revenue due to Government (as shown in the subjoined statement) by the said Jodidar, will be sold by public auction at the place and on the date mentioned in the annexed statement. The sale will commence at 11 A. M. on the date specified, and the village will be knocked down to the highest bidder without reserve.

2. Provided that when a village is divided into separate recognized vrittis, the Deputy Commissioner may, at his option, instead of selling the village as a whole, sell each vritti separately.

3. The purchaser will be required to deposit 25 per cent of the purchase money at the time of sale, and where the remainder of the purchase money may not be paid within fifteen days from the day of sale, the money so deposited shall be liable to forfeiture.

4. When such deposit shall not be made, nor the remaining purchase money paid up, the lands shall be resold at the expense and risk of the first purchaser.

5. Persons bidding at the sale may be required to state whether they bid on their own account or as agents, and in the latter case to deposit a written authority signed by their principals, otherwise their bids may be rejected.

6. The sale shall be stayed, if the defaulter or any other person acting on his behalf or claiming an interest in the land, tenders the full amount of the arrears of revenue with the interest and other charges, provided such tender be made before sunset on the day previous to that appointed for the sale.

7. The sale of the property will not become absolute until the sale has been confirmed by the Dewan.

8. Purchasers having completed the payment of the purchase money will, as soon as the sale has been confirmed by the Dewan, be placed in immediate possession and the village will be registered in the name of the purchaser, and a certificate of sale signed and sealed by the Deputy Commissioner will be granted to him.
